

Where do we go from here?

---

John Horsley
Regional Workshop
On Context Sensitive
Design

A Partnership of Pilots

---

- Maryland
- Connecticut
- Kentucky
- Minnesota
- Utah
- FHWA Federal Lands

Regional Conferences

---

- Missoula, Montana, September 5-7
- Westbrook, Connecticut, Nov. 27-28
- Context Sensitive Solutions Workshop,
Seattle, April 30-May 1
- International Symposium, Seattle, May 2-3

National Workshop in Maryland in May, 1998

- 325 persons
- 39 states
- 36 Advisory Organizations

Key Finding: Need to Transform the Highway Development Process

- DAD is out
- CSS is in

Maryland

- Linked to Smart Growth initiative of Governor Parris Glendening
- Parker Williams heads AASHTO task force devoted to “institutionalizing” CSD in every state

AASHTO Working Groups

---

- Susan Martinovich, Nevada, Oversight
- Bill Gulick, Kentucky, Training
- Dave Ekern, Minnesota, Performance Measures

Kentucky

- 1000 people trained in state
- Outreach to 9 others
- Context sensitive construction
- Commitment Action Plan

Kentucky

---

- Commitment by CEO Jim Codell, AASHTO Vice President
- Environmental ethic in all they do
- National Conference on Historic Preservation, June 2-3

Connecticut

---

- Route 6 approved after 30 years of delay
- Workshops for customer feedback
- Agency-wide and seamless

Connecticut

---

- Statewide training engineers and managers
- University of Connecticut engineering curriculum
- Regional Workshop, date here, 300 participants from 18 states

New Jersey Teams with Project for Public Spaces

---

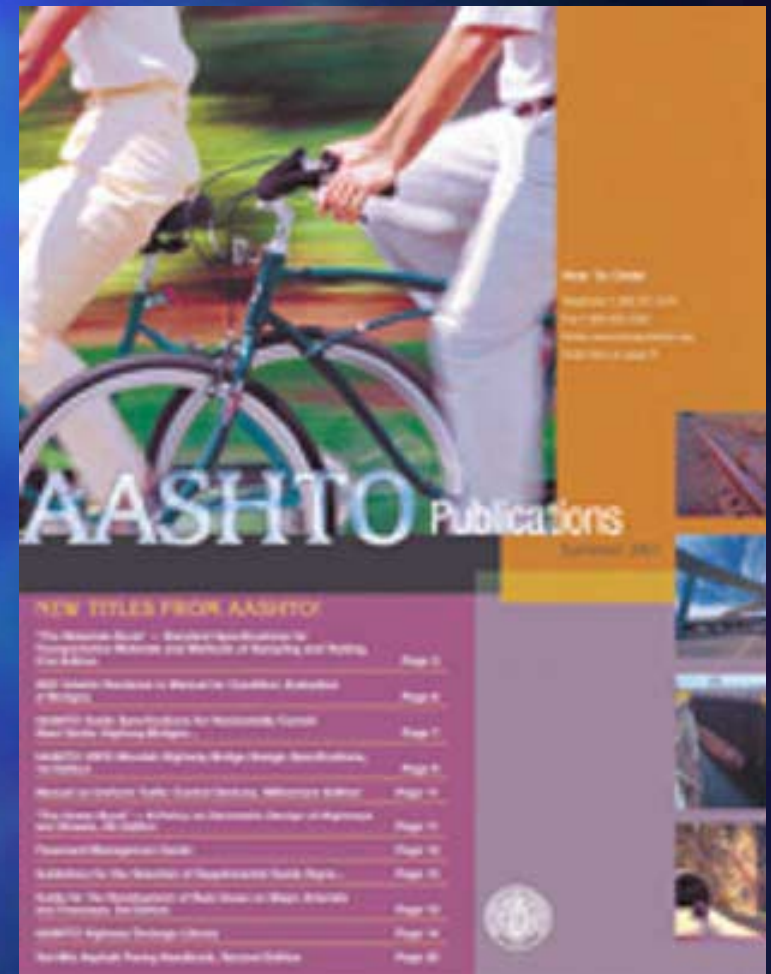

- Customized week-long training course
- More than 600
- Expanding to NY and CA
- “Placemaking” approach
- www.pps.org

Minnesota

- Reorganized to increase CSD focus
- Greater flexibility in new AASHTO "Green Book"
- 4th Workshop in June

Utah

---

- Context Sensitive Solutions applied to:
  - all projects
  - all processes
- Training all Utah DOT employees for maximum buy-in

FHWA Federal Lands

---

Mather
Memorial
Parkway

Washington State

---

- Site of Regional Conference, April 30-May 1
- CSD-100 International Symposium
- Result of AASHTO and FHWA European Scan
- Field trips will explore first hand both rural and urban applications

Reauthorization Goals in 2003

---

- $34-$41 billion annually for highways
- $7.5-$10 billion for transit
- Environmental stewardship and streamlining

"the river of life"

---

Create priceless places through context sensitive solutions

